A List of Recognized Incarnations or Tulkus

(made in about 1819 CE)

Note: This file is mainly of use for searching out references to names of particular Tibetan recognized incarnates or Tulkus. This is based on one text primarily, although some other brief text passages are appended at the end of the file. Input by Dan Martin, Jerusalem. This was once available online at the THDL, but their new website THLib seems not to have it any more, which is my reason for putting it up on "Tibetological."

Source: Bod-kyi Gal-che'i Lo-rgyus Yig-cha Bdams Bsgrigs, Bod-ljongs Bod-yig Dpe-nying Dpe-skrun-khang (Gangs-can Rig-mdzod series no. 6) (Lhasa 1991), only the section entitled, "Bod dang / Bar-khams / Rgya Sog Bcas-kyi Bla Sprul-nams-kyi Skye Phreng Deb Gzhung" on pp. 281-369. Please note that the present listing cannot be assumed to replace the original printing, which should be consulted directly. What you see here is intended to be an index only. Added notes about problems in finding the new incarnation, etc., have not been included here.

This was evidently ordered to be made in a Wood Dog year (1814, with little doubt), compiled for the Tibet-resident Amban Hu-zhang (perhaps this is the Amban Hu'u-zhang who was in Tibet from 1823-1827, although note that there was no Wood Dog year during his tenure). It was compiled on the basis of previous such lists. Evidently someone updated the list 6 years after it was first made (in 1820?), and added intralinear numerals to indicate the then-current age of the incumbent Rinpoches. Perhaps this work has something to do with Austin Waddell's article, "Chinese Imperial Edict of 1808 A.D. on the Origin and Transmigration of the Great Lamas of Tibet," JRAS (1910), pp. 69-86, although I haven't checked this yet. It seems quite clear that there was an effort by the Manchu authorities in those days to keep better track of Tibetan reincarnations.

Part I: Reincarnation lines of "Central" Tibet.

Note that the context is a table of contents to the actual texts found elsewhere in the collected works. At best this provides coverage for only some of the 19th to early 20th century Rinpoches, but I have yet to find a more convenient list.
